Market Seems Indisposed to Move Either Way, but Decline Comes at End.

MONEY SITUATION IS EASIER

Fall in Rates of Time Loans Indirates Easier Condition Than During Past Year.

NEW YORK, January 20.—The stock market seemed indisposed to move far in either direction to-day, the many waverings of the early part of the day giving way to marked dulinoss, until the sadden decline just at the close. The conclusive evidence furnished by maturday's phenomenal bunk statement of the rapid progress towards a condition of practical redundancy of the money market was clearly an event to schedule in the list of hopes realized. There had been considerable previous speculation based on the representation that the covernment authorities would permit a modus vivendi for the cosi-carrying railroads pending the jucoal-carrying railroads pending the judicial afcertainment of the validity of the law requiring the divestment of their ownership of the coal properties.
Some improvement in confidence of the future of business was reported, owing to the casing of the money situation.
The fall in rates for time loans to 5 per cent. for period now reported shows an easier condition of the money wearket than existed at any time dur-warket than existed at any time during the whole of last year.

It was not until the last hour of the day's session that the doubtful fluctuations of stocks gave way to positive weakness.

HIGH POINT, N. C., January 20.—
At all the churches here yesterday petitions were circulated for signatures asking the Legislature, which will be in special session this week, to pass a law making the great old State of North Carolina prohibition. Each paper had a long list of names attached, and in addition to this large number of people from High Point will go in person to Rhielish to attend the grand raily of the prohibition forces there.

The temperance advocates here want a law enacted declaring for State prohibition, regardless of whether it will hurt the Democratic party or not, believing that the time is ripe now for such a movement, and that delay will be dangerous, and that the Democratic party will be the better off for

CHIEF IS SHOT DOWN BY DESPERATE NEGRO

Officer Pettigrew, of Reidsville, Seriously Wounded by Ed. Penn, of Danville.

HAD SHOT AT WINCHESTER

It Was to Arrest Penn for Attempt to Kill That Officer Forced Fierce Duel.

REIDSVILLE, N. C., January 20.—A serious difficulty occurred Saturday night about three miles north of Reldsville, at the Rock Quarry, between two negroes—Ed. Penn, supposed to be from Danville, Va., and Jack Winchester, of Rockingham—in which Penn shot at Winchester with attempt to shot at Winchester with attempt to kill.

Penn having the reputation of being a desperate character, Sheriff M. F. Pennix, going to arrest the negro, took with him Chief of Police Pettigrew, of Reidsville, and proceeded to the scene of the trouble. Upon arrival there, which was among a lot #f cabins at the Rock Quarry, they learned that Penn was concealed in one of the cabins, and at once advanced, heavily armed. As soon as Sheriff Pennix entered the door he saw Penn, and demanded his surrender, which was responded to by a shot at the sheriff, whereupon Chief Pettigrew and Mr. Brock, of the Quarry force, advanced, and a general shooting followed, resulting in Chief Pettigrew receiving a load of lend from a shotgun right in his breast.

dition, while serious, is not considered critical.

Penn escaped, the arresting officers having exhausted their ammunition Sheriff Pennix was shot at three times, but dropped in time for the shot to pass over him. To day two bloodhounds were brought from Salisbury, and while they trailed the negro for several mites, finally lost the track and up to this writing Penn is still at large.

To-night a proclamation was issued declaring him an outlaw. Great excitement prevails among all classes of citizens, and if Penn is found he will no doubt be summarily dealt with. A reward of $200 is offered by Mayor Montgomery for his capture.
